SIX FLU CASES REPORTED HERE

Physicians Unable to Predict Accurately Whether Disease Will be in Epidemic Form

MAY BE SOME ISOLATED CASES

City Health Board Receives Rules From State Board to be Followed to Ward Off Disease

Six cases of the influenza in Nashville have been reported to Dr. H. Kinsinger, secretary of the city board of health, by one local physician, and it is possible there are other cases which have not been reported, although the city health secretary is not aware of any. Physicians are unable to predict what may be the outcome because it is impossible to determine whether the disease will appear in epidemic form as it did early last winter, or only in isolated cases. One thing is certain, however, that will not be amiss for everyone to keep in condition, according to physicians, and thus prevent an epidemic if it is possible.

The Public Health Service reports influenza prevalent in twenty-four states. The disease has appeared in epidemic form in Ohio, Michigan and Illinois, and in a few large centers of population in northern Indiana. All physicians have blanks on which to report influenza patients to the city board of health or the county health commissioner, Dr. E. I. Wooden, as the case may be, and are urged to follow the rules of the state board of health, so that the exact status of the local situation may be known.

The six patients reported to Dr. Kinsinger are: Mrs. William Kirkpatrick, 1108 North Main street; Mrs. Buford Winship and twenty-months-old baby, 117 Gosnell avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perkins and son, 221 North Hannah street.

Dr. Kinsinger has received a bulletin from the state board of health, warning against the possible recurrence of the epidemic this winter. It is pointed out that closing schools, churches, picture shows, etc., will not stop an epidemic, and quarantines, disinfectant and fumigating seem of little worth.

The board advises communities to set aside an epidemic emergency fund and appoint a citizen's committee to be ready for any emergency. A repetition of the suffering and loss experienced last winter would be stupid, the board declares, and advises that the following rules be carefully adhered to:

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS NOBLE TW'P MEETING

Farmers Association and New Salem Horse Thief Detective Association Meets Jointly 400 GUESTS ARE SERVED.

The Noble township Farmer's association and the New Salem Horse Thief Detective association held a joint fellowship meeting last evening in the auditorium of the high school building. At the meeting the two associations decided to cooperate and work together for the benefit and uplift of the community.

During the evening the New Salem orchestra furnished the music and a basketball game was staged between the high school team and the independents. The high school boys proved themselves to be too fast for the independents and entirely walked out with them.

Mrs. Margaret Morton's domestic science class served a delicious supper and the cream supper to the four hundred guests present.

$150,000 APPROPRIATION

Wilson Will Ask Congress to Feed People of Poland

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 27.—President Wilson, it became known today will recommend that congress appropriate $150,000 to be used in feeding the starving people of Poland and other states on the Bolshevik frontier. This appropriation was urged by Herbert Hoover, General Bliss and others in close touch with the situation in that part of Europe. The matter of making the appropriation is before congress at present.

Wilson is not expected to send a note to congress but will suggest to individual members that the appropriation be authorized.

WOMEN SUBJECT TO INCOME TAX

They Are Reminded They Must Pay Same as Men if Their Annual Income Exceeds $1,000

SCHOOL TEACHERS EXEMPTED

Same Rules Apply to Women as to Men And Same Allowances Are Made For Dependent

Women who had incomes during 1919 are reminded by Collector of Internal Revenue Wm. L. Elder that they are subject to all of the provisions of the Federal Income Tax. Many thousands of women file returns and pay taxes regularly, and there are new names added to this list each year. The high wages and salaries received by women last year will perhaps double the number of the fair sex who are required to file returns.

A public school teacher, or other city, town, county and State employee, is not taxed on her salary or wages, but must file a return if her taxable income from other sources was sufficient in amount to come within the law's definitions.

An unmarried woman, a widow, or a married woman who is living apart from her husband, must file an income tax return if her net income for 1919 was $1,000 or over. She is entitled to an exemption on the first $1,000 of her income. If she is the head of a family, as defined in the Income Tax regulations, she may claim $1,000 additional exemption. Also, she may claim further exemption of $200 for each person for whom she is the chief support. If the dependent is under 18 or is mentally or physically defective.

A married woman who has an income from a separate source than her husband is entitled to file a separate return with respect to that income. Ordinarily a husband and wife file one joint return, including the income of both. But if the husband does not include his wife's income, the wife is required to file her own return. Separate returns of husband and wife are required if either had a net income exceeding $5,000.

A married woman who lives with her husband is not allowed a prescribed exemption. She and her husband have $2,000 plus $200 additional for each dependent; and this exemption may be taken by either or divided in any manner between them.

A woman who was widowed during 1919 may claim exemption for the full year, on the basis of her status as of December 31.

A wife whose husband is in a sanitarium or temporarily working in another city, and is separated from him only through necessity, should not consider her status as "living apart" from her husband. But if there is voluntary continuous separation, whether or not granted by court decree, each must take the status of a single person with respect to income tax.

FALLS DOWN STEPS

Mrs. Robert Snodgrass, living west of the city, sustained a painful injury to one of her knees Sunday when she slipped and fell down the cellar steps of her home.

WOULD DISCHARGE ADMIRAL SIMMS

Representative Byrnes, Democrat, Says Naval Officer Violated Confidential Instructions

SAYS HE SLANDERED ARMY

Rear Admiral Simms Should be Dishonorably Discharged For His Actions, He Says

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 27.—Dishonorable discharge for Rear Admiral Simms because of his recent testimony before the senate naval committee, was recommended by Representative Byrnes, of South Carolina, democrat, in a speech in the house today.

Byrnes declared that if a superior officer did instruct Simms on leaving for England before the United States entered the war "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes," the admiral by repeating this to the senate committee is "violating confidential instructions and deserves the condemnation of every American and a dishonorable discharge from the navy."

Charges that Simms while serving abroad slandered the army and navy and belittled American forces to the glorification of the British were made by Byrnes.

He declared that Simms' efforts to flatter the British by slandering the army and navy of the United States will meet with the contempt of every true Englishman as it does of every true American.

Several statements regarding American participation accredited to Simms were declared by Byrnes to be false as shown by the record in Simms' office.

"Simms was so busy fighting the war over the dining table of London," Byrnes said, "that he did not take time to look up the actual facts in his office."

GIRL SEVERELY INJURED

Shelbyville, Ind., Jan. 27.—Miss Lucile Lowe, 15 years old, suffered a broken limb and other severe injuries when a sled on which she was coasting crashed into a fence, hurling the girl several feet. Several minor injuries have resulted here in the last few days from coasting and skating.

MAY END KANSAS STRIKE

Pittsburg, Kas., January 27.—Action looking toward ending a strike of about 450 Kansas coal miners, called in protest against the recently enacted Kansas industrial court, was expected with the arrival here of Richard J. Hopkins, state attorney general, who is empowered to begin legal proceedings against the strikers if it is found that the law has been violated.

JUDGE RULES JURY WAS DRAWN IN RIGHT WAY

Newberry Trial is Delayed Because of Accusations Made Against Jury, Which Judge Overrules

STARTS THIS AFTERNOON

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 27.—The panel in the trial of United States Senator Newberry and 124 others on election fraud charges was drawn in the proper manner, Judge Sessions ruled today.

Judge Sessions made his decision in denying a petition by defense attorneys challenging the jury panel on the ground that it was improperly selected.

Selection of the jury was postponed at the opening of court due to the fact that several of the defendants were snowbound and unable to reach the city.

Judge Sessions announced that the missing defendants may reach the city today, and another attempt would be made at that time to proceed.

3 WILL CONTINUE IN MARRIED LIFE

Recent Divorce Cases Filed Here Have Been Dropped—Milroy Woman Gets Divorce

HENRY CASE VENUED HERE

Cases Dismissed Are Pea vs Pea, Waggoner vs Waggoner and Bebout vs Bebout.

Three plaintiffs involved in recent divorce cases have decided to try married life a while longer and have withdrawn their divorce complaints, having paid the costs that had accumulated so far in their cases.

Grace Pea, who recently filed a complaint against Albert Pea alleging that she had decided to force her complaint through this time until final separation was had, after many other such attempts, has withdrawn her suit. She originally asked for $1,000 alimony and had secured from the court a restraining order so that her husband could not sell his property.

Ralph Waggoner has dropped his divorce action against Ethel Waggoner. At the time of filing he stated his father-in-law and brother-in-law had attacked him.

Pearl V. Bebout, who also had filed a complaint for a divorce from Russell Bebout, has had the case dismissed. A restraining order had previously been issued which kept Bebout from their home in North Maple street.

Jenobia Wiley of Milroy was granted a divorce from Ephraim Wiley Saturday afternoon by Judge Sparks, after a married life of 33 years. Mrs. Wiley was given the custody of five of their minor children, and was allowed $10 a week support money.

Two cases have been sent here on a change of venue from Henry county, they being the cases of Allison against VanDyke. Both involve the same people and are over real estate deals. They were originally started in Hancock county, being venued to Henry and then to Rush county.

ARMY MEASURE IS READY

Washington, Jan. 27.—Although Chairman Wadsworth announced that he probably would report the measure immediately because other matters are pending, it was not believed that the new army reorganization bill, ordered favorably reported yesterday by the senate military committee, would be called up in the senate before next week. The bill, designed to create a permanent military policy, provides for compulsory military training for boys between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one inclusive.

35 FARMERS TAKE THE BOOKKEEPING COURSE

A MOST VALUABLE ASSET

Thirty-five Rush county farmers attended the one day school held in the court house here today, the main object being to teach them how to keep a proper set of books for the farming business.

A representative of Purdue University was here today to conduct the school which lasted for four hours, starting this morning at ten o'clock. The plan of the work was to aid farmers in getting the information necessary to keep a reliable, but simple set of books, which will aid them in making out their income tax and in studying the leaks and possibilities of reducing expenses.

In addition it is probable that the Indiana Federation of Farmers Associations will call on farmers in the near future to show that the labor of farmers is below that of other industries. It is absolutely necessary that some definite information be available, and this information can be obtained only from those who have kept an accurate set of books.

REBEKAHS ARE HERE TODAY

Big Attendance at District Meeting of Three Counties

The 16 chapters of the Rebekah lodge were well represented here today at the district meeting of the three counties, Rush, Shelby and Decatur. A program was arranged for the delegates and visitors, and among the principal addresses was the one delivered by the state president, Lela B. Chesline of Indianapolis. Each of the sixteen lodges in this district sent delegates, and many others attended, bringing the attendance today far above the average which usually attends these meetings. The program will continue until late tonight.

The Carthage order was on hand to provide entertainment, and the local orchestra from the Rebekah lodge rendered selections at all of the programs.

FEBRUARY TO BE AN UNUSUAL MONTH

For The First Time in 40 Years it Will Consist of 29 Days With Five Sundays

NEXT TIME WILL BE IN 1948

Elwood Kirkwood, County Weather Observer, Explains How to Determine Leap Years

February, which will be ushered in next Sunday, will be an unusual month in many respects, not only because it is leap year, but because it will have five Sundays and 29 days, according to Elwood Kirkwood of Maunz, county weather observer, who explains some of the peculiarities of the month.

He says the last time this occurred—February with five Sundays and 29 days—was in the year 1880—forty years of a leap. Previous to this time there were in the 19th century two more years in which February had five Sundays and 29 days, the years, 1852 and 1824, and they were preceded by a forty-year leap. The next February with five Sundays will occur in 1948 and again in 1976, and again in 2004, which is the end of the 400 cycle, when the dates in which February has five Sundays will be repeated in the same order previous to the year 2404 until 2404 and then repeat again.

This is the 400 year cycle. There is also a 28-year cycle and a four-year cycle. Leap year occurs every four years except on the years 1700, 1800, 1900 and 2100 etc. The number cannot be divided by 400 or the two right hand figures cannot be divided by four without a remainder. But when the two right hand figures of the given year can be divided by four without a remainder it is a leap year. If one remains it is the first after leap year, if two the second and if three the third. But when the two right hand places are naught, cut them off and divide the left hand figures by 4 and nothing remains it is a leap year, but if one, two or three remains it is a common year. The common year consists of 365 days of 52 weeks, and one day over. The day of the month goes backwards one day every common year, so that in such a year, if the beginning or first day is on Sunday, the next year it will be on Saturday, the next on Friday and so on.

Leap year consists of 366 days or 52 weeks and two days over. The beginning of the next year goes back two days, so every fourth year is leap year, and as there are seven days in the week, then the same order of the day in the month and the day in the week only returns in four times seven or 28 years, which if there was no interruption by leap year would return in seven years. Hence the invention of the solar cycle of 28 years on the expiration of which the same days of the week are restored successively to the same days of the month.

So that the leap year in which the first day of January comes on Thursday, the month of February will have five Sundays and twenty-nine days.

DIVORCE TO EACH NINE MARRIAGES

For Every Nine Couples Married, One Couple is Divorced During 1919, Report Shows

236 CIVIL CASES ARE FILED

115 Criminal Cases on Record Involves Only 4 Women—188 Get Married and 20 Separated

The statistical report of the county clerk, Loren Martin, has been compiled for the year 1919 and is now ready to be forwarded to the statistical department of the state legislative bureau at Indianapolis. The report shows that in the year 1919 there was one divorce granted for every nine marriage licenses issued.

The report shows how busy the Rush circuit court was in this year, and enumerates the number of various kinds of cases filed and disposed of during the year that is just closed.

There were 236 civil cases filed 181 being disposed of in the same year that they were filed in. Twenty-nine of these cases were not tried here and were sent to some other county on a change of venue.

Rush county sent out 29 cases to be tried in some other county, and there were 11 sent here to be tried.

The juvenile court had a total of 45 cases, and the press is never permitted to relate any business of this court, because of an order issued by the court.

There were also 67 letters of administration issued during the year 1919 and 27 guardians appointed. Sheriff Jones conducted only two sheriff sales, which also speaks well for the county.

Fourteen persons were adjudged of unsound mind during the year, and were either committed to a hospital or given under a guardianship.

The records show that last year the county clerk issued 188 marriage licenses, and the court granted 20 divorces, which is a ratio of 9 to 1, with eight marriage licenses to the good.

In the divorce cases there were 16 granted to the wife and the remaining four to the husband. Only one wife obtained a divorce on grounds of drunkenness.

There were 41 cases in 1919 that were either denied or dismissed, and at present time there remains on the issue docket 116 cases that will come up for trial.

In all, there were 116 criminal cases filed, none of them being venued out of the county, and only one being sent there on a change of venue. The crimes as charged in these 116 criminal cases vary, but wife and child desertion holds the record with 11.

The other charges on this docket include arson, assault and battery, bigamy, grand larceny, adultery, gambling, violation of liquor laws and many others in which only one or two violations have been cited.

Of the 116 criminal cases on record only four of them are women, two being on charges of adultery and two listed under other misdemeanors. The record, however for this year has been changed somewhat, as Sheriff Jones stated today that so far he has had more women in jail this year than men.

Quite a great deal of space on the report is devoted to naturalization of foreign born citizens. This part of the report will go in blank from here as no one in the past year declared their intentions of becoming a citizen.

GERMANY SENDS A NOTE

Wants to be Relieved From Execution of War Criminals

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 27.—Germany has sent a note to the peace conference asking the allies to relieve her from execution of the clause in the Versailles treaty which demands that Germany deliver up persons accused of war crimes. It was learned today that the German government is not prepared to accept the demand.

WORKING TO SOLVE HOUSING SITUATION

Muncie Home Builders are Aiding a Number of Citizens and Are Erecting 20 Buildings

INVEST IN RENTAL PROPERTY

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 26—With fewer than 200 dwellings erected here during the last year, with 500 new houses in demand now, and with the influx of new families becoming great, largely due to building activities at the local site of the General Motors corporations, the Muncie Commercial Club and Chamber of Commerce is directing its efforts largely toward a solution of the situation.

The Muncie home Builders, a financial institution fostered by the club to advance money on second mortgages to prospective builders, has aided a number of citizens and in addition is erecting twenty buildings for sale. Private realty firms have about 100 houses in process of construction and to these are being added an equal number of persons able to meet the cost in whole or in part.

With the advent of spring it is expected that local capitalists will invest heavily in rental property.

All carpenters available are now employed by the W. E. Wood construction company, at the General Motors site, and by other industrial concerns, and it is agreed that the construction of new dwellings will depend largely on the efforts of the local United States employment bureau and other agencies to induce workmen to come to this city.

The labor situation, together with the high cost of material promises to make difficult of solution a situation that threatens to retard the predicted growth of Muncie to a city of 100,000 population within the next five or six years.

HERE'S REAL GUIDE IN BUYING

Expert on Economics Gives Some Practical Tips on How and When To Purchase.

"How to buy, when to buy, when not to buy; save food, but encourage business."

With this as his guide, A. L. Marshall, director of course in economics at the University of Wisconsin, has compiled the procedure to cut the high cost of living; and his outline has been sent to every woman's organization in the Seventh Federal Reserve District by the Government Savings organization in connection with the three months' campaign of the women in savings as paving the way for safe investment in government securities. Following is the guide as outlined by Prof. Marshall:

HOW TO BUY:

1. Direct from the producer; at points where material is made; by parcel post; in municipal market.

2. Through wholesaler; co-operative buying (NOT for hoarding, but reasonable use); reasonable buying (contracts for future delivery insure reasonable prices for producer and buyer).

3. Through retailer; cash and carry stores. 5 per cent off for cash. 10 per cent off for cash and delivery. Buy in amounts so that dealer can cut prices for you. Pay cash or pay before the tenth of the month (so dealer can secure discounts).

WHEN TO BUY: (Raise all the food you can.)

1. After study as to needs for week, month, season or year. Order once a week or order twice a week.

2. After distributing funds available, so that no need for healthful living is neglected.

3. Study as to exchange value in foods so that family will not suffer.

SAVE THE CHILD FIRST—They need to build muscle, they need to build bone, they need growth determiners.

WHEN NOT TO BUY:

1. When product is a needless luxury.

2. When trusts have put up the prices (consult your state's attorney).

3. When by needless buying in large amounts prices may be sent soaring.

Money Cannot Buy Any Better

E. D. Grappe, a leading merchant of St. Maurice, La., writes: "For a catholic I especially recommend Foley Cathartic Tablets, knowing as I do that money cannot buy any better." Druggists and general merchants who are in close touch with their friends and know just what the medicines they sell do for their customers, never hesitate to recommend Foley Cathartic Tablets. They are primarily laxative, but also sweeten the stomach and put up the liver.

JAZZMUSIC IS AN INCENTIVE FOR HENS

Few Snappy Tunes May go Long Way Toward Increasing Production of Eggs

GIVES NEEDED EXERCISE

Columbus, Ind., Jan. 27.—Jazz music is an incentive for hens to lay is a new departure from the staid old methods.

When ordinary powers of persuasion no longer bring results a few snappy tunes may go a long way toward increasing production and bringing down the price of "hen fruit."

This was the solution of the problem as outlined by Frank Habig of this city. He decided, after intensive thought, that what his hens needed was exercise. However he found it a hard matter to stir them out of their accustomed inactivity. As a last resort he put a phonograph in the corner of the yard and after playing several selections found that the jazz had the desired effect.

The hens were visibly restless, and the result of their restlessness is two eggs a day.

Financial Creed for All

Every individual in the Seventh district is being urged by the War Savings organization to live up to a financial creed during 1920. Following is the creed suggested by the government:

I believe in the United States of America.

My opportunity and hope depend upon her future.

I believe that her stability and progress rest upon the industry and thrift of her people.

Therefore, I will work hard and live simply.

I will spend less than I earn.

I will use my earnings with care.

I will save consistently.

I will invest thoughtfully.

To increase the financial strength of my country and myself, I will buy government securities.

I will hold above barter the obligations my country thus incurs.

I will do these things to insure the greatness of America's future.

ADVERTISING CLUBS' CONVENTION JUNE 6-10

Men From All Parts of This Country Planning to Attend Meeting in Indianapolis

TO BE GREATEST MEET IN '20

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—Manufacturers, merchants, business and advertising men throughout the United States are already turning their attention to Indianapolis as the city in which probably one of the greatest conventions of 1920 will be held—the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. Men from all parts of this country and the world will attend the convention which will be held here June 6 to 10 and requests for hotel reservations are already being received from many cities.

A tremendous campaign to "sell Indianapolis" to the world has been started by more than 500 Indianapolis business men who have pledged themselves to make the convention "the world's greatest during 1920."

Speakers with a "two-hundred-minute" message are the kind of men who will deliver addresses before the convention, E. T. Meredith, of Des Moines, Ia., president of the associated ad clubs, has announced.

"The convention is going to cost $200 a minute and if a man talks 25 minutes he must say something worth $5,000 or we do not care to have him talk," President Meredith has announced.

An advertising plaza, erected along both sides of an Indianapolis street for several blocks, with crews of sign painters working from morning to night painting various advertising signs, will be a unique feature of the convention.

—P. T. Innis of Milroy was here this morning while enroute for a few days stay in Indianapolis.

—Mrs. Claude Smith and Mrs. Marion Finney were among the passengers this morning to Indianapolis where they spent the day.

—Earl H. Payne and Roy E. Harold were in Indianapolis today where they attended the noon-day luncheon of the Indianapolis Rotary Club at the Claypool Hotel.

Changed Mind About Going Away

"Five years ago doctors told me I would have to move my wife to another climate, as she suffered so with stomach and liver trouble and bloating. Also, that she would have to have an operation for gall stones. Our mail carrier told me of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and, on his advice, she has taken it and is now as well as ever in her life." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At Druggists Everywhere.—Adv.

MIDDLEMEN ARE REAL PROFITEERS

According to Attorney General Palmer Who Makes His Report For Five Month Period

REACHED HEIGHT IN DEC.

Prices Paid Farmers Have Decreased Much Greater in Proportion Than Anything Else

Washington, Jan. 27.—Middlemen have accumulated vast profits during the five months of government campaign to reduce the price of necessities, investigation of two government departments indicated today.

Since the middle of August when Attorney General Palmer announced they would go after price boosters, reports show that:

Prices paid farmers for principal crops have decreased from 3.4 to 8.7 percent each month according to the Agriculture department, and

Prices paid by consumers increased continuously until they reached the highest point in history in December, according to the labor department.

These reports went to indicate that the middlemen are buying cheaper than ever before, but receiving the highest price in history.

Prices paid farmers for meat producing animals have decreased in the last five months in greater proportion than the average season for the last ten years.

The history of increases in prices paid by consumers for 22 articles is shown by the labor department in index numbers as beginning in September.

In that month index figures of prices of principal commodities was 188, in October it remained the same but in November it jumped to 192, and in December raised itself to 197.

Thus from September to December the index figures showed an increase of nine points.

Labor and The Rail Bill

Rep. C. N. McArthur of Oregon is absolutely right in his assertion that in the anti-strike provisions of the Cummins railroad bill congress is face to face with the question, "shall we have government of, by or for the people or shall we have government of, by and for special interests." His is also right in declaring that the question "cannot be dodged or evaded, and, as it involves a principle, it cannot be compromised".

By quotations from Supreme court decisions, Mr. McArthur demonstrates that it is within the constitutional power of congress to enact a compulsory arbitration law and then to prohibit strikes on railroads. In the decision which upheld the Adamson act, over which the Brotherhoods excited, there was agreement, even in a dissenting opinion, that congress has authority to require compulsory arbitration of labor disputes which may seriously and directly jeopardize the movement of interstate commerce, and to protect the free flow of such commerce against any combination, whether of operators, owners or strangers. Upon that phase of the question, there is no room for doubt.

Mr. McArthur is also sound in his argument upon the policy of the anti-strike provision. Not only individuals but the people as a whole must go to the courts for the redress of grievances and the defense of rights. "There is no such thing as a strike for the general public; it must submit to the law of the land and the decrees of the courts. Organized labor, however, wishes to continue its mad orgy of applying the rule of force for the settlement of its demands. What is there so sacred about organized labor that it cannot submit its grievances to the legally constituted tribunal for adjudication?" The argument is unanswerable if we are to pretend to maintain a government which undertakes to guarantee equal rights for all and special privileges for none.

The weakness of the plea that railroad employees should not be singled out for anti-strike legislation is fully exposed by Mr. McArthur when he says, "The answer to that objection is the lack of jurisdiction of the federal government except in questions affecting interstate commerce. Congress unquestionably has the right to pass legislation regulating interstate commerce and labor connected therewith, but it would not be warranted in entering the field of state or local legislation.

The Cummins bill compels no man to enter railroad employment, and requires no man to remain in such employment. All it does is forbid him to enter into a conspiracy to interfere with interstate commerce.

When Work Kills.

Many people will tell you that work never kills any one. But it does.

There is a certain pace that men travel that requires work—work of peculiar kind—work that leads inevitably to disaster.

That is the work that has dissipation as its goal.

The young man who spends hours chasing the wild orgies of the bright lights is a worker. He toils diligently in his search for new thrills, for the sordid and seamy side of life, for the "skirts" that smiles when he nods his head.

His brain is ever on the alert—seeking, seeking, seeking—and at each step his vitality becomes weaker and weaker.

In time he becomes old in his youth, his frame but an empty shell, his mind a conglomeration of selfishness and debauchery.

It requires work to go this pace—work that leads to the open grave.

A full grown antelope is said to be able to attain a speed of sixty miles an hour. Bally! When we want to cut a dash we'll just apnext an ante, saddle it up, climb aboard, and kick up dust in the eyes of our local speed maniacs.

Under the new system of taxation in Germany a rich man's fortune will be reduced to almost nothing by 1925. And even in death he can find no relief, for the inheritance tax will clean up the rest.

BELCHING
Caused by Acid-Stomach

Let EATONIC, the wonderful modern stomach remedy, give you quick relief from distressing belching, food-repeating, indigestion, bloated, gassy stomach, dyspepsia, heartburn and other stomach ailments. They are all caused by Acid-Stomach from which about nine people out of ten suffer in one way or another. Acid-stomach is a disease. Before I used EATONIC, I could not eat a bite without belching &amp; flat, up gas and bitter. I have not had a bit of trouble since the first tablet.

Millions are victims of Acid-Stomach without knowing it. They are weak and ill, have poor digestion, food is improperly nourished though they may eat heartily. Grave disorders are likely to follow if an acid-stomach is neglected. Cures of the liver, intestinal congestion, gastric catarrh of the stomach—these are only a few of the many ailments they caused by Acid-Stomach.

NEWBERRY AND 134

AIDS GO TO TRIAL

Those Indicted are Charged With Conspiracy to Corrupt Electorate of Michigan

C. W. SESSIONS TO BE JUDGE.

Government to Prove That Senator's Campaign Expenses Cost Between $500,000 and $1,000,000.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 27.—The eyes of the nation were turned toward Grand Rapids to-day when the trial of United States Senator Truman H. Newberry of Detroit and 134 of his election aids, including some of the most prominent professional and business men of the state, began before Federal Judge Clarence W. Sessions.

Senator Newberry and all of those indicted with him are charged with conspiracy to corrupt the electorate of Michigan by the use of money. The senator and a dozen or more of his political chiefs are charged also with fraud in the filing of the senator's expense account.

The government will submit evidence intended to prove that Newberry's campaign preceding the primary and general elections in 1918 cost between $500,000 and $1,000,000. The money was spent, according to evidence to be submitted at the trial, in obtaining public speakers, advertisements in newspapers, and in some cases in actual vote buying. It also is alleged that Newberry filed a false statement of expenses with the secretary of state, thereby committing perjury.

Indictment of the senator and his workers followed one of the most bitter campaigns ever urged in Michigan. In the primaries Newberry was opposed on the Republican side by Henry Ford, the Detroit automobile manufacturer. Ford, also was a candidate for the Democratic nomination, having been selected by supporters in both parties. James W. Helme, former state drug and food inspector, entered the lists for the Democratic nomination and it was alleged that he was in the employ of the Newberry interests, who were said to have sought to split the Democratic vote. Helme is among those indicted and his connection with the campaign was expected to prove nearly as great a sensation as that of Senator Newberry himself.

Among the managers for Newberry during his campaigns who were indicted with him are the following:

John S. Newberry, brother of the senator, who according to a campaign statement, gave $99,000 from the Newberry estate to the campaign fund.

Allan A. Templeton, Detroit manufacturer, chairman of the Newberry campaign committee.

Paul H. King, Detroit attorney, executive secretary of the committee.

Charles A. Floyd, Detroit, railway manager.

The list of indicted includes doctors, lawyers, politicians, manufacturers, retail merchants and several newspapermen. One country editor was alleged to have received a ton of white print paper for his services in behalf of Newberry.

Practically all of those indicted stood mute when arraigned and pleas of not guilty were entered by the court.

That the case will be bitterly fought was apparent from the start. Attorneys for the defense have stated that in the event of conviction here the case will be appealed to the highest courts in the country.

Attorney Martin H. Littleton of New York, one of the most prominent criminal lawyers in the country, is chief counsel for the defense. He has spent much of his time here since the indictments were returned, preparing for the legal battle.

SLICK NO MAN'S LAND PREVENTED ACTIVITY

With Weather Conditions Improved;
Army of Salvation Expects to Get Into Action

25 PRISONERS TAKEN SO FAR

The drive which is being carried on by the local infantry of Salvation Army church, assisted by the Shelbyville heavy artillery, will continue through this week, Capt. J. A. Tench announced today.

So far twenty-five prisoners have been captured. Last week the condition of "No Man's Land" was so slippery that both forces were forced to be satisfied with sending over a few hand grenades and except for Sunday evening, when both forces were reinforced, there was nothing to report.

However, things point to a live time for this week and it is expected a large number of prisoners will be taken.

Meetings every night will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

St. Louis, Jan. 24.—They sing 'em to work in St. Louis now.

The American Industries Quartet visits St. Louis factories at the noon hour daily and jazzes the workmen with "Good Morning, Mr. Zip," or "Everybody Shimmyes Now."

After a few rounds of "Who Played Poker with Pochontas" or "Minnie, Shimmy For Me," workers go back to their places joyfully, according to Harry ter Braak, executive secretary of the industrial department of the Young Men's Christian Association here. He is in charge of nurturing the music spirit among St. Louis workmen.

Greater production is one advantage of the sings, according to ter Braak. He says also there is less prospect of bolshevik propaganda's getting a hold.

"It's great to see the workmen go back to their benches and machines after some rousing tune has been sung," ter Braak said. "They break and run for their places with zest and during the afternoon on every hand the songs that were sung at noon are heard."

"Keep the workmen happy—that's the big thing to be done in the United States now. Where there is happiness there is contentment."

"Where Bonds Are Loosed"

Wonderful in its gripping power is the new World Picture, "Where Bonds Are Loosed," which comes to the Mystic Theatre.

The story has for its setting two contiguous but lonely islands off the west coast of Australia, set apart as government hospitals for sick natives and there a few persons, doctors, nurses and superintendents, an overseer, under scarcely any social restraints, work out a tragedy.

It is a unique romance, abundant in passion and told with force and fervor. The character of Dr. Hickey who is dragged down by his surroundings, is splendidly played by Mr. Fischer. Sherwin, the overseer, a type found on the outskirts of civilization, is little better than a beast. Sherwin is the principal part in the picture and is played by Arthur Behrens. Mr. Behrens does wonderfully realistic work as Sherwin. In his hands the overseer is shown as a brute of the lowest type.

Dixie Lee, who has the role of Nurse Desmond, the cause of all the trouble, does well with a very difficult part. Miss Lee is an artist of the first rank.

Houdini Again Tonight.

Houdini, the world-famous hand-cuff king and self-liberator, promised to set a record for thrills and sensational stunts when he started "The Grim Game," his Paramount-Artcraft picture which was the attraction at the Princess theatre last night and which will be repeated again tonight. With this end in view, Arthur B. Reeve and John Gray, authors of the story, worked in all the amazing feats with which Houdini has been astonishing vaudeville audiences for years. He extricates himself from strait jackets, prison cells and a bear trap and, as a climax, is involved in a hair-raising airplane accident—not in the script—in which two planes, with propellers locked together, crash down from a height of 3,000 feet. A thoroughly logical and entertaining mystery story has been worked around these "thrillers." Ann Forrest, Tully Marshall, Thomas Jefferson, Augustus Phillips and Arthur Hoyt are included in the cast. The picture was directed by Irvin Willat.

The new Enid Bennett picture, "The Woman in the Suitcase," which is being shown at the Princess Theatre tomorrow, is a treat for feminine movie fans if for no other reason than that the pretty star exhibits a most exquisite wardrobe. There are several evening gowns that would make any debutante jealous. One is of lavender georgette tucked in squares and trimmed in little ostrich tips of lavender, green, and pink. A silver lace evening gown is for more formal wear. There is a wide variety of other beautiful costumes.

Winter Garden Show at Murat

To the hundreds of delighted patrons of this theatre who so thoroughly enjoyed the recent visit of the big "Passing Show of 1918" will come a thrill of pleasure at the announcement that soon another marvelous Winter Garden creation—in fact a stupendous companion spectacle to "The Passing Show" will be offered.

On February 2 the Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert will present at the Shubert Murat theatre, Indianapolis, all that week with matinees Wednesday and Saturday, the mastodon New York Winter Garden extravaganza, "Monte Cristo, Jr." and in offering it in Indianapolis at this time they are giving local theatre-goers an opportunity of seeing it even before it goes into Chicago. In the latter city it is scheduled for an all summer engagement beginning March 1.

Included in the wonder cast of super-excellence are such luminaries of the stage as Adelaide and Hughes, William and Gordon Dooley, the Watson Sisters, Lew Hearn, George Baldwin, Katherine Gallo-way, Jack Squires, Kathrine Wyley, Virginia Fissinger, J. Francis Dool-ey, Corrine Sales and a host of others.

There are two colossal acts and eighteen regal scenes of color and beauty in this extravaganza, which is said to be the funniest Winter Garden show ever produced. It is a travesty on the Dumas novel of similar title. The ensembles are graced by the largest and most stunning array of Winter Garden beauties that has ever graced the stage and their costumes are said to be beautiful and novel beyond description. Mail orders accompanied by remittance will be accepted from now on.

TEETH DISPROVE THEORY

Fort Wayne, Ind., Jan. 27.—It was proved to an absolute certainty today that the skeleton unearthed here a few weeks ago is not that of Catherine Winters, 9 years old, the daughter of Dr. W. A. Winters of Newcastle, who disappeared March 20, 1913. The proof was given by a comparison of teeth of the skeleton and the characterization of the teeth of the Winters girl. The stepmother of the Winters girl wrote Chief of Police Abbott that the child's lower first molar of the right side had been filled by the father, a dentist, and it was shown that none of the teeth in the skeleton here had been filled.

Just Yellow Mustard for Backache, Lumbago

Grandmother's old mussy mustard plaster or poultice generally brought relief allright even in the severest cases, but it burned and blistered like blazes.

"Heat eases pain," reduces the inflammation and scatters congestion, but you will find that while Begy's Mustard, made of true yellow mustard and other pain destroyers is just as hot as the old fashioned plaster it is much quicker, cleaner and more effective and cannot blister.

It's a great external remedy—just rub it on wherever aches, pains, inflammation, congestion or swelling exists and in a very few minutes the relief you have longed for surely arrives because "Heat eases pain."—30 and 60 cents at druggists or by mail, S. C. Wells & Co., LeRoy, N. Y.

PEOPLE OF NEAR EAST NEED AID FOR WINTER

Practical American Philanthropy Has Kept Alive Large Portions of People, Says Harbord

800,000 ARE DESTITUTE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—Med-General J. C. Harbord who headed the American military mission which recently made an exhaustive investigation into conditions in Armenia, declares that thousands of persons in the Near East must perish this winter unless American relief is continued, according to a statement made today by the Indiana Committee on Armenian relief.

"Practical American philanthropy has kept alive a large portion of the Armenians, Syrians and Greeks and other destitute peoples who certainly would have died of starvation and disease but for contributions from America," Maj. Harlan states, "I was everywhere impressed with the pathetic trust with which these people depend on America. Hundreds of thousands of these people are still refugees. Col. Haskell, allied high commissioner for Armenia reports that more than 800,000 are destitute in the Caucasus alone. Unless supplies are continued, at least 7000 tons of wheat flour each month there will inevitably be death from starvation here this winter on an unprecedented scale. There are many thousands of children many of whom have lost both parents and do not even know their own names. The Near East Relief is working with splendid courage and in spite of inadequate funds to save those little children. Their work is worthy of and demands the support of all Americans."

ALPHEUS CLARK SUGGUMBS

Dies Today After Illness of Six Weeks With Heart Trouble

Alpheus Clark, aged 35 died this morning at 5:30 at his home, 423 West Second street, after an illness of six weeks with heart trouble. Two sisters, Mrs. Clara Campbell and Mrs. Fanny Cregor also survive.

The funeral services will be conducted at the residence Thursday afternoon at two o'clock and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS OF 1920 PAVE WAY TO INDEPENDENCE

The 1920 War Savings stamps are carmine in color and bear the head of George Washington. The price for January is $4.12 and it increases one cent a month to $4.23 in December. The 25-cent Thrift stamp also is on the market and is used as formerly to evidence payments on account of War Savings stamps and certificates. The 1920 War Savings stamp in size approximates the larger stamp used in 1918. It will have a maturity value of $5 January 1, 1925.

War Savings stamps of the series of 1918 and 1919 shall not be affixed to War Savings certificates of the series of 1920 and War Savings stamps of the series of 1920 shall not be affixed to War Savings certificates of 1918 or 1919. War Savings stamps of one series affixed to War Savings certificates of another series will not add to the value thereof. Thrift stamps, as such, are not directly redeemable in cash, but each Thrift card will, as usual, have spaces for 16 Thrift stamps. A filled Thrift card may be exchanged for a War Savings certificate stamp, series of 1920, at any post office or other authorized agency. As usual, post offices will require a written demand ten days in advance before payment will be made before maturity, and such War Savings stamp certificate must be surrendered for payment within 60 days after such demand. Otherwise the demand will be deemed to be waived.

FAKE STOCK SCHEMES PROVING PROFITABLE

Banker Says People Should Read Newspapers and Consult Bankers on Investments

FAKERS WORK HARVEST NOW

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—If people would read the newspapers they would run less chance of being defrauded in fake stock schemes. This was the advice of Sol Meyer to the people of Indiana today. Meyer is president of the Meyer-Kiser bank of this city.

"Nearly every day," Meyer said, "people can read of some one who has been caught in a fake stock scheme who can have the benefit of advice of experienced financiers, given in newspapers, but they keep right on investing their money in fairy promises and see their banker after they are stung."

The last few months have been more profitable for fakers because many people who never had money before have it now. It is in these that the "blue sky" salesmen are interested. Failure of the Indiana state legislature to enact laws to curb the activities of these men make this state a fertile field for them, Meyer said.

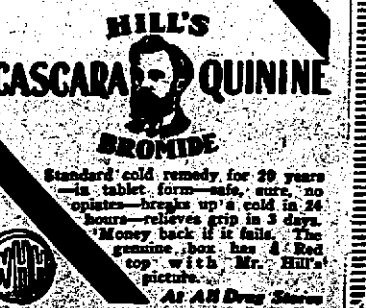

Meyer advises the prospective purchaser of stock to obtain an opinion on it and then investigate it through a reputable business house, putting off with a promise to buy if the scheme proves to be legitimate.

SHORT COURSE IS BEGUN

Southern Indiana Counties Begin 4 Day Session

Oakland City, Ind., Jan. 27—President Dearing of Oakland City college opened the third annual session of the Southern Indiana short course at that institution here today.

Among the subjects to be discussed at the four day course are the federal farm loan system, the uses of concrete on the farm, the necessity of road improvement, some economics, livestock improvement and woman suffrage. In addition to the short course there was an exhibit of household equipment, farm implements and livestock. The agricultural department of Purdue University is co-operating with the local college in the course.

Experiments are being made to use chalk marl, especially that which comes from the Limburg mines, as a fertilizer.

Can Catarrh Be Cured?

Does it Cause Tuberculosis, Pneumonia, Influenza to Be Contracted.

Free Examination and Lecture By Catarrh Specialist.

The medical director of the Indiana Catarrh Institute, 1436 North Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind., is going to be in this city for one day. He will give, privately, a free examination and consultation to everybody that goes to see him, as well as a very interesting and instructive lecture on just what catarrh is; that it will do to a person afflicted with it and give proof that catarrh has been cured and is now being cured every day right in this city.

This expert specialist has spent seventeen years in the special study and treatment of chronic catarrh; has seen thousands of cures and positively pays no attention to any other disease than catarrh. He is at the head of a large institution at Indianapolis, which is devoted exclusively to the treatment of this one disease. He has an entirely new and different system of successfully treating this disease, which he will be glad to demonstrate to all who call on him.

This pleasant and successful system can be used at home, at very small expense, without any loss of time or inconvenience. It works successfully on the worst old cases of catarrh of the Nose, Throat and Bronchial tubes, Chronic Cough and Bronchitis, dropping mucous in the throat, pains in the chest, shortness of breath, clogged up head and nostrils, head noises and catarrhal deafness, hawking and spitting, frequent severe colds, asthma, hay fever, chronic catarrh of the stomach and bowels and all old "run down" conditions due to catarrh.

Chronic catarrh is often the forerunner of Tuberculosis, Influenza, Pneumonia and other fatal diseases.

Stop wasting time and money on sprays, douches, salves, appliances and the methods of ordinary doctors. Go and consult a real specialist on the disease. It does not put you under obligation in any way. He is glad to advise you freely.

He will be at the Hotel Scanlan, on Wednesday, January 28th, from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., and every twenty-eight days thereafter.

If it is impossible for you to call on him in person, you should write to find out all about this new system that is curing people. Just address a card or letter to The Indiana Catarrhal Institute, 1436 North Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind.—Adv.

84,000 EMPLOYEES IN KRUPP WORKS

Labor Situation in Germany is Altered and Extra Workers Needed Because of 8 Hour Day.

FORMERLY HAD 12 HOUR DAY.

Many of the Employees are Men Grown Gray in the Service—No Women Employed

Essen, Germany (By Mail)—The Krupp works, which formed the backbone of Germany's munitions supply, are employing today about the same number of men as before the war. This does not represent, however, the same amount of business in the plant as in the pre-war period, say officials of the works, inasmuch as the labor situation is altered and extra workers are needed because of the eight-hour day.

The employment roll before the war stood—in July, 1914, the Essen works proper employed 41,203 and the outside Krupp works, 40,118; in June 1918, Essen employed 112,360 and the outside works, 58,641; while today the roll stands, Essen 44,758 and outer works, 40,118.

Formerly, the Krupp works had a twelve hour day with two hours out for meals and rest. The laborer went to work at 6 a. m. and quit at 6 p. m. Now in some parts it is necessary to have three shifts to keep fires going.

The "piece work" system is in force. This system, gradually coming into effect in Germany again, appears to work well in the Krupp plant.

And the spirit among the workmen is altogether better than in many of the rest of Germany's industrial works. A generous percentage live in company houses, which would make a middleclass American envious and would look like a palace compared to some corporation houses in the states.

Then there is a pension system, a savings system, a general paternal air about the place. In fact, the Krupp works idea has always been that of a sort of big family. It is the largest company in the world, I believe which is controlled and practically entirely owned by a single family. And Essen, a clean, bustling, comfortable-appearing city of 500,000, is made up mainly of Krupp people whose business arises from the fact that the Krupp works are in existence.

Herr Krupp von Bohlen and his wife have made it a point to retain their old workers. Men who had jobs before the war are on their payrolls, and those who have lost out were either the women workers taken on temporarily or the conscripted laborers and foreigners engaged for the war's duration.

Many of the workers are men who have grown gray in the service.

They have the family solidarity idea and this family solidarity idea has displaced the communists and radical socialists, for it has so far frustrated their efforts to cause an upset in the industrial fabric of the Krupp institution. True, there were a few disturbances for a day or two during the revolution. But that is past, and for the most part, the workman goes on reasonably contentedly with his work.

Virtually no women are employed. About 25 percent of the wartime increase was of women employees. Now only a few are retained—generally widows of former employees, who are given work largely out of sympathy.

TO IMPOUND DOG OWNERS

Roberts Believes it Cheaper Than Feed and House For Canines

(By United Press.) Marietta, O., Jan. 27.—Impounding owners of dogs instead of the dogs themselves has been decided on here by Sheriff Roberts as a cure for persons who violate the local dog license act.

With the advent of the new year, Roberts issued the usual warning against failure to buy dog tags. Many owners of canines ignored the warning. So Roberts promulgated the new edict.

He holds it cheaper to imprison and feed the owners of the dogs than to feed and house the dogs and then pay to have them killed.

STATE ROADS WILL BE DISCUSSED AT SCHOOL

Annual Road School Will Take up Problems of Good Roads When They Meet Today

UNDER AUSPICES OF PURDUE

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 27—Road problems within the state will be discussed from every angle at the sixth annual road school conducted by Purdue university, which opened here today.

Supervisors and engineers have made up the heaviest attendance during recent years but the course this year has been enlarged to include subjects of interest to contractors as well.

That there is a scarcity of road contractors is apparent to nearly all communities, according to information at the university. This scarcity is due to recent reverses in this business. The scope of the course was accordingly extended to instruct the contractors how to meet present business conditions and to urge them to return to their vocations.

Professor George E. Martins, who served with the 23rd engineers in France will direct the course.

Winthrop E. Stone, president of Purdue, welcomed the road men to the university. Dr. W. K. Hatt, head of the civil engineering department also delivered an address of welcome. H. H. McCaskey, president of the county highway Superintendents' association and A. W. Grosvenor, president of the county surveyors' association responded. The course will close Thursday.

In the treatment and cure "without the use of the knife" of Piles, Fistula, Fissure, Prostatic Enlargement, Rupture, Chronic Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Obstruction, Rheumatism, Stomach, Bowels and all other curable Chronic Diseases.

No Matter How Obstinate or How Contracted — Cured

When I say I can cure you, you can depend upon it, for I know from the successful results in thousands of similar cases to yours, just what I can accomplish. Grateful patients treated by me are constantly recommending others, and this is why I possess such a large practice.

Men! Women! If you do less than you should, on your farm, at your desk, or in your shop, you are in some way weak. If you can't accomplish all that you expect or hope for, you are the silent sufferer from some hidden disease that affects one or more of the important nerve centers of the body. These neglected or unknown conditions, are usually diseases of the Pelvic System, which reflexly act upon the organs of Elimination, digestion and the nervous system, which in turn has its influence on the brain. I have made a special study of the Nervous System and have perfected methods that will cure where ordinary methods have failed. I will give you a searching and thorough examination FREE, thus determining the exact location of your trouble.

BEAR IN MIND that I have in Indianapolis one of the most modern and thoroughly equipped offices in the state with a Specialist in charge who is ripe in years of experience, rich and mature in learning in his chosen work. That neither one of us will promise you more than we can give, and should you be unable to see me on date specified above, you can write, or better still, call at my home office, 314 Traction Terminal Building, Indianapolis.

I do not use the knife, neither do I do any cutting.

Suggestions to Builders

Indications are that there will be an unprecedented amount of building this year. The stock in the hands of all dealers is below normal. The Planing Mill facilities of the country are overtaxed. Which conditions indicate that prices will be higher later.

Therefore, if you intend to build anything you will save money, get better service and secure better material by placing your order now.

Attend to the many preliminary details before the busy season, and avoid the rush and hurry of springtime.

ORDERS FOR SPECIAL MILLWORK, BUILT-IN-CABINETS, STAIRWAYS, FRENCH DOORS, SCREENS, AND OTHER REPAIRS SHOULD BE PLACED NOW FOR PROMPT DELIVERY

During the season just closed we were compelled to refuse many orders of that character, due to the heavy building operations, but for a few weeks, we will be able to get this class of work out promptly. Anticipate your requirements and assist us in carrying for our trade.

Swift & Company's 1919 Earnings

How They Affected You

During the twelve months ended November 1, 1919, (its fiscal year,) Swift & Company transacted its large volume of business on the smallest margin of profit in its history.

Sales over $1,200,000,000.00

Net earnings $13,870,181.34

Our shipments were in excess of 5,500,000,000 lbs.

This means that our earnings were less than 1 1/2 cents on each dollar of sales, or a quarter of a cent on each pound shipped.

Consumer—

The average consumer eats about 1/2 lb. of meat per day—180 lbs. per year. If he purchased only Swift & Company products he would have contributed only 45 cents (180 lbs. @ 1/4 cent a pound)—a year profit to Swift & Company for its investment and service, less than one cent per week.

Our earnings were so small as to have practically no effect on the family meat bill.

Live Stock Raiser—

Swift & Company handled in 1919 over 16,000,000 head of live stock. You can figure for yourself that our earnings of 1 1/2 cents on each dollar of sales are too small to affect the price you received for your stock.

We paid all it was humanly possible to pay considering what the meat and by-products could be sold for.

HOUSE SHORTAGE FOUNDED IN STATE

This situation has resulted in many homes being built at a loss.

STRIVE TO SOLVE PROBLEM

Real Estate Agents Blame Shortage on The High Price of Construction Materials

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 27.—Commercial bodies of Indiana cities are grappling today with a serious problem—the housing situation.

Reports to the United Press from every section of the state today showed acute shortage of homes in nearly every community. This has resulted in rents being boosted to the highest levels ever known.

In some industrial centers, manufacturers have provided homes for a majority of their workers by building houses and either selling or renting them to employees. In others the chamber of commerce or commercial clubs have taken steps to solve the problem. Real estate agents generally blame the shortage on the high price of construction materials and the failure of builders to keep pace with the growth of cities. Following are some of the reports gathered from representative cities:

GOSHEN—Goshen, a city of 10,000 needs 150 houses to meet present requirements. The chamber of commerce is assisting in the organization of a building corporation. Goshen, during the year, expects to add largely to its manufacturing industries but it is realized that growth will depend largely on its ability to supply housing facilities.

HARTFORD CITY—The housing problem has been a serious thing for several months and the chamber of commerce is trying to ease the situation. People who have rooms for rent have been asked to list them with the chamber. For the last year it has been necessary for many people to buy property in order to find a suitable living place. In several instances people have sold rental claims for from $10 to $25. A building and loan association with a capital of $1,000,000 has been organized and will begin construction in February.

ELKHART—Houses in Elkhart are extremely scarce and there appears little prospect of an adequate building campaign. The chamber of commerce is expected to take the matter up. An increase in industries has not been accompanied by an increase in home construction and the high price of materials is given by one contractor as the principal reason for this.

KENDALLVILLE—The housing problem here has reached the serious stage. Local factories are swamped with orders and are greatly handicapped for help, due to a large extent to the lack of sufficient homes for labor seeking work here. The gravity of the situation was evidenced recently by the fact that a newcomer offered a reward for anyone who could find a suitable six room home for him.

EVANSVILLE—Evansville is approximately 1,000 houses short. An effort is being made to form a $1,000,000 housing corporation. One manufacturer may build houses for his employees. House construction in 1919 was far below normal. Factory construction now under way means increases of approximately 5,000 employees.

COLUMBUS—The house shortage in Columbus has become so acute that it threatens to retard the growth of the city. Plans for improvement of the housing situation are under way however, and the Columbus Housing association is being formed to inaugurate a program of building for the coming spring. Several factories are enlarging their plants and the demand for homes already has exceeded the supply. The housing corporation hopes to build 200 residences in the coming summer.

LA PORTE—Laporte is experiencing the same shortage of houses reported in other cities here. One company expects to erect 125 houses this spring for employees. A housing corporation organized through the chamber of commerce has done much to arouse interest in home building, but many residences have been started.

MODESTO—J. L. Miller, brokers and farmers of Stanislaus county have held a meeting to discuss submitting the proposition of obtaining a bond issue for a fair ground for a stock show.

THE CAR OF THE FUTURE PARTLY

Hupmobile

We believe the Hupmobile to be the best car of its class in the world. Eight years ago we first expressed this conviction. We were strong and sincere in our belief then. Now, it is shared so widely by others that it has virtually become the general consensus of opinion. Best in its class is a strong phrase, but— isn't it a fact that you constantly hear it applied to The Comfort Car?

SUTHERLAND TELLS AN AMUSING EXPERIENCE

Finds It Hard to Escape From Budapest While in Charge of Bela Kun

London, (By Mail)—Sir William Sutherland, M. P., one of Lloyd George's secretaries, tells of an amusing experience he had in Budapest.

He was very perturbed as to how to get away. Bela Kun and the bolsheviks were in possession of the city and he could not get a passport or other facilities.

So he went and sat in a train, trusting to luck to escape.

Very soon some bolsheviks, approached the carriage and spoke to him, but he made signs that he did not understand. They went away and brought back some high officials, and he was interrogated again.

This time he felt himself growing pettish, and remarked heatedly: "O, buzz off! Buzz off!"

These words created a great impression. Obsequences were made, a notice put on the window, and the carriage was locked with the Englishman alone inside.

The train moved off.

At the next station he opened the window and found that the notice read:

"This compartment is reserved for Count Buzzon."

A HORSE TALKS

If horses could talk, we would get a few of these dumb beasts around us to help sell the "Rushville Special" Spreader. If these dumb beasts could speak the human language, horses would be the best advertisements we have.

A man who thinks anything of his horses, can't help liking this spreader if he will once mount the seat and put his horses in front of him and see them work in the modern three-horse hitch. With this equipment every horse travels without the least side draft, not a tug pulling a bit out of line. Each horse pulls exactly one-third of the load. If horses could talk, this is the spreader they would choose.

When the "Rushville Special" Spreader goes into the field with a big load, there is hardly a bit increased draft on the horses when it begins to spread, and every foot of load that leaves the machine decreases the draft in proportion. Something that cannot be said of any other spreader on the market.

The fact that this spreader will turn in a short circle distributing at full feed a difficult load, proves that the traction is at least 100 per cent in excess of the average requirements. This means scientific handling of difficult material, because if the draft is on the beater wheel the horse will feel it. The time that a spreader becomes a horse-killer is when it is partly unloaded and the packed condition of the load clogs the beater wheel—something that never happens with our machine.

If horses could talk they would choose this spreader, because the wheels are mounted UNDER the load, and the front and rear wheels are close together. This means light draft—something that horses like.

NOTICE TO ROAD CONTRACTORS

State of Indiana, Rush County, ss:

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Commissioners of said county, at their office in the court house at Rushville, Indiana, will receive sealed proposals for the improvement of a certain highway in said county by grading, draining and paving with macadam, as set out in the specifications, plans and profile now on file in the office of the auditor of said county, by and under the laws of the State of Indiana. Said sealed proposals will be opened and the contract awarded for said improvement on the 3rd day of February, 1920.

Bids or proposals will be received up to 2:00 o'clock p. m. on said date. The said road to be improved is located in Walker township, in Rush county, Indiana, and is to be known as the Wm. B. Crane et al. road when so improved.

Bids will be for the completion of the said improvement in accordance with the plans, profile and specifications in the office of the auditor of said county, and shall include all labor and material for said work. In no case will extra compensation be allowed for any additional work alleged to have been done by the contractor or contractors to whom is awarded the contract.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a personal or surety bond in a sum equal to double the amount of the bid filed for the work bid on, to be approved by the board of commissioners of said county. Said bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the work, the sureties, if personal, shall be resident freeholders of the State of Indiana, one of whom shall be a resident of Rush county.

Said bond shall be for the benefit of any person, persons or corporation who shall suffer any loss or damage by reason of any such bidder failing or neglecting to enter into a contract to perform such work awarded by the board of commissioners or to carry out the same in any particular or to pay for any labor or material which may have been furnished to any such contractor or contractors or to any subcontractor, agent or superintendent under him, in the construction of said work.

Said improvement will be let as a whole to the lowest responsible bidder upon affidavit of noncollusion, which must be submitted with the bid, and upon failure to submit such affidavit such proposal or bid will be rejected by the board; and the board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Time for the completion of said work will be agreed upon after the letting of said contract by said board of commissioners and successful bidder.

Given by order of the Board of Commissioners of said County.

WORKS HARD TO AVOID FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of colds and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

J. W. FESLER

Candidate for Republican Nomination for Governor at Primaries May 4, 1920

J. W. FESLER ENTERS RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Announces His Candidacy in a
Frank Statement to the Public
—Has an Enviably Record.

Loyalty is J. W. (Billy) Fesler's creed. He has been loyal to his country, his party and his friends. He has been in politics all his life because he believes it is the duty of an American citizen to participate in the affairs of government.

Law and order stands as the national slogan for 1920. One hundred percent Americanism is demanded of every candidate. Billy Fesler proved himself a true son of one of Indiana's G. A. R. leaders—Col. J. R. Fesler, of the 27th Indiana Volunteers, veteran of Antietam, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg—by serving in the navy during the Spanish-American war. Barred from the ranks in the world war by age, he rendered efficient service as a member of the Marion County Council of Defense.

Mr. Fesler's political career has coincided with his rise as a lawyer, for he was associated with such eminent Republicans as Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, and W. H. H. Miller, attorney general in President Harrison's cabinet. One year out of college found him president of the Harrison First Voters' Club. He served as secretary of the Republican Marion county committee in 1892 and was elected county clerk in 1894. He was a member of the Republican state central committee from the Seventh Congressional District from 1894 to 1898, and in 1914 he was again induced to accept this leadership. During his incumbency complete harmony prevailed and he served with credit to himself and benefit to the party, retaining the chairmanship until he announced his candidacy for Governor.

Billy Fesler is a Hoosier product of the farm and the small rural community. He was born at Morgantown, Ind., Sept. 29, 1864. His parents moved to Franklin, Ind., at the close of the war where he lived until 1884, attending the public schools and Franklin College. Lacking funds to continue his education, he came to Indianapolis and obtained a job as a water boy at the stock yards. After working a year and a half he entered Indiana university, graduating in 1887.

On July 1, 1887, he entered the law office of Harrison, Miller & Elam. He was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law in 1890. On returning from service in the Spanish-American war in 1899, he became a member of the firm of Miller, Elam & Fesler. This relationship continued until 1906 when he became the junior member of the firm of Elam & Fesler. This association lasted until Mr. Elam's death about three years ago, when he became the senior member of the firm of Fesler, Elam & Young.

He has been a trustee of Indiana university since 1902. He served as vice-president of the board for many years and is now its president. He was a member of the Indianapolis Park Board in 1914-15. For the last quarter of a century he has been a member of the Indiana and Indianapolis bar associations, serving as president of the latter in 1916. He was one of the organizers and the third president of the Marion Club. He belongs to the Columbia and University clubs and is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Fesler said: "I have concluded to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, and propose to make an energetic and aggressive canvass. At this time I shall not attempt any extended statement but as opportunity permits, propose to give fully and frankly my views as to what I believe should be the policy of the next state administration."

INCOME TAX LAW FULLY EXPLAINED

All Single Men With No Dependents
Earning Yearly Salary Over
$1,000 Must Pay

SOME EXEMPTIONS ARE MADE.

Married Men Living Apart From
Wives are Taxed—Dependents
Take Off Some Tax

Unmarried men and women who are breadwinners for others are granted special exemptions on their earnings before figuring the income tax to be collected. Although a return must be filed by every unmarried person, and by every married person living apart from wife (or husband) who had a net income of $1000 or more during 1919, recognition is made in the law of the home burdens carried by millions of such persons, and relief from excessive taxation is especially provided.

In addition to the ordinary personal exemption of $1000, an additional exemption of $1000 is granted to "heads of families"; and there is also provided an exemption of $200 for each dependent under 18 years of age or who is mentally or physically defective. The $200 for each dependent may be claimed by any taxpayer who is the chief support of such dependent. This is not confined to dependents who are members of the family or relatives. On the other hand it does not include servants or others who are earning their living. And it does not apply to the wife or husband of the married taxpayer, even though such person may have become a total burden.

It should be remembered that the person who claims exemption as "head of the family" must qualify for it. Two single persons who divide between them, more or less equally, the financial and other responsibilities of a household cannot claim that either one is the head of the family. But if a single person actually assumes the total responsibilities of the household and is aided by having one of his brothers or sisters support himself and contribute an amount that could not practically be considered more than his board, such trivial circumstances must not be allowed to interfere with his clear claim for exemption.

A single person is the head of a family if by December 31st he had become the sole support of close relatives (by blood, marriage or adoption) living in the same house with him and looked upon by them to exercise a greater or less amount of control in the matters affecting the support and maintenance of the household.

The phrase "Sole Support" is here used in the sense that there is no other person to whom the dependents are looking for a substantial portion of their support. There may be another source of income such as interests on bonds, dividends on stock, pension) which, if meagre enough to still leave the recipient dependent, should not interfere with the claim for exemption. Such meagre income of dependents, as well as the inconsequential profit on the board of any self-supporting member of the household, must however be included in the return of the head of the household.

But a division of responsibility will in every case exclude the parties from the claim for the additional exemption. Article 302 of Regulations 45 defines that a head of a family is "a person who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation."

Once the existence of the fact that a taxpayer is the principal cause for the creation or maintenance of a home is established it cannot be destroyed by his mere temporary or unavoidable absence from it. If a father is left with a young child to whom he cannot give the proper attention himself, and he places this child with relatives or elsewhere, he should still be considered the head of a family even if yet further force of circumstances would oblige him to live elsewhere; provided that he still exercised fatherly control over the well-being, education, and filial feelings of the child, and did not (while furnishing the support) allow the child to become a virtual orphan. If, however, without necessity, the dependent continuously makes his home elsewhere, his benefactor is not the head of a family, irrespective of the question of support.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL
HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a word of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you. Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.
